Information

Use this form when notifying Bolagsverket that we have wrongly registered you in a business or association. We can remove you free of charge, if we receive your notification within three weeks from the date you were registered in the business or association. If you have been wrongly removed from the register, you should contact the business or association in question.

1. The business or association which I (or the business I represent) have wrongly been registered in

Fill in the company registration number and name of the business or association you have wrongly been registered in.

2. Remove me (or the business I represent) from the business or association above

Fill in your details or the details of the business which wants to be removed from the register as a company official. State your personal identity number (or date of birth (YYYY-MM-DD) if you do not have one) and name or the company registration number and business name. Fill in your address, email address and phone number as well.

3. Other matters

If you have been wrongly registered in more businesses or associations, state the company registration numbers and names here.
