Information

Use this form when notifying Bolagsverket that we have wrongly registered you in a company or association.

If we receive your notification within four weeks from the date you were registered in the company or association, we can deregister you free of charge. Deregistration does not mean that your details will be deleted, but they will become hictorical records in the register.

If you have a Swedish personal identity number (ten digits) or a co-ordination number, you can protect yourself by contacting us and blocking your identity so that you cannot be registered in companies or associations.

1. The company or association which I (or the company I represent) have wrongly been registered in

Fill in the company registration number and name of the company or association you have wrongly been registered in.

2. Remove me (or the company I represent) from the company or association above

Fill in your details or the details of the company which wants to be removed from the register as an company official. State your personal identity number (or date of birth, YYYY-MM-DD, if you do not have have one) and name or the company registration number and company name. Fill in your address, email address and phone number as well.

3. Other matters

If you have been wrongly registered in more companies or associations, state the company registration numbers and names here.

4. Signature
